ERES Education Seminar

Welcome to the University of Zurich

Prof. Dr. Egon Franck, Vice President
The University of Zurich - Facts

– Founded in 1833
– Largest Swiss University
– 3 Campuses
– 7 Faculties
– circa 150 Institutes
– 15 Centers of Competence
The University of Zurich - Students

- 26'200 enrolled Students (Fall Semester 2010)

- Development of Student Numbers

Source: UZH
The University of Zurich – Employees (31.12.2009)

- 495.8 Total FTE Professors
  - 326.4 FTE Full Professors
  - 109.9 FTE Associate Professors
  - 59.6 FTE Assistant Professors
- 5'384.5 Total FTE Employees

Source: UZH
The University of Zurich – Funding

- Total Reserve Revenue and Expense: ~ 1.150 Bn. CHF
- Funding (2009, in million CHF; rounded):

![Pie chart showing funding distribution]

- Canton Zurich: 559
- Swiss Confederation: 116
- Other cantons: 24
- Third party funding*: 113
- Services: 124
- Tuition fees: 113

*Includes also funding from the Swiss National Science Foundation, and university research funds | Source: UZH
The University of Zurich – devoted to scientific excellence

– 5 University Research Priority Programs (URPP)
  (e.g. Altruism and Egoism; Systems Biology / Functional Genomics)

– National Centers of Competence in Research (NCCR)
  – Home Institution of 6 NCCRs (e.g. FinRISK)
  – Participation of UZH research groups in 12 NCCRs (e.g. Robotics)

– Member of international research networks (e.g. LERU)

– Top position in rankings
  (e.g. 51 in Shanghai Ranking)

– Nobel prize winners
  (e.g. Rolf M. Zinkernagel, 1996; Karl Alex Müller, 1987)
Milestones: Master of Advanced Studies in Real Estate

– 2003: The degree program originates from a private initiative of the real estate industry and is operated by the Center for Urban and Real Estate Management (CUREM)

– 2005: The degree program is under the patronage of the SIA (Swiss Society of Engineers and Architects)

– 2006: First RICS (Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors) Accreditation of the program in Switzerland which leads to a worldwide acceptance of quality

– 2008: Integration into the faculty of Economics, Business Administration and IT. This guarantees a worldwide integration with other high class universities
CUREM Life-Long Learning (LLL) Courses

- Real Estate Valuation
  - Market-oriented valuation principles
  - Overview of national and international valuation standards
  - Appraisal reports

- Advanced Real Estate Valuation
  - Risk models and risk measurement
  - Public Private Partnership (PPP) models

- Real Estate Investment Management
  - Basics in performance measurement and performance-oriented control of real estate portfolios

- Scheduled Spring Semester 2011: Real Estate Finance
  - Non-listed real estate investment, public real estate investment und real estate in a mixed asset portfolio